The Paris of the East, Stylish Dalian: Your Study Tour Destination

City Overview

Located at the southern tip of Northeast China's coastline, Dalian is known as the "Pearl of the North" and the "City of Romance." It blends modern style with a century of history, combining the beauty of a garden city with the openness of a coastal city.

As a city that has hosted APEC and Summer Davos events, Dalian offers clean streets, fresh air, a multicultural atmosphere, and warm hospitality — an ideal window for international students to understand the real China.

Strategic Location

An international shipping hub in Northeast Asia with convenient sea and air transport.

Garden-like Living Environment

Fresh air, pleasant climate, and abundant urban greenery.

Diverse & Inclusive Culture

A welcoming city where Chinese and Western cultures meet.

Dalian: A Symphony of International Architecture, Mountains, and Sea

A coastal pearl where Chinese and Western cultures meet.

International Architecture Showcase

From Russian Style Street to Zhongshan Square, Baroque and classical European buildings line the streets, each telling a unique story from Dalian's century-long history.

Mountains and Sea in Harmony

A 2,211-kilometer coastline links Jinshitan's geological wonders with the majestic scenery of Lushun Port, where forests and the sea meet in spectacular natural beauty.

Chinese-Western Fusion

As a century-old trading port, Dalian has a rich multicultural character. Vintage trams, modern streets, local Northeast cuisine, and authentic Western food coexist in harmony.

Study Tour Advantages: Safe, Diverse, and Well-Established

Dalian · A Preferred Summer Camp Destination

With its unique geographic and cultural advantages, Dalian provides a high-quality, one-stop study tour experience from itinerary design to on-site reception, making every journey safe, meaningful, and memorable.

Safe & Comfortable Environment | City-Level Support
One of China's safest cities, with reliable infrastructure and convenient transportation.
